IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

THE public are hereby directed to the medical advertisements of Dr. Harlich's Celebrated Com pound Strengthening Tonic, and German Aperient Pills, which are a medicine of great value to the alleted, discovered by O. P. Harlich, a celebrated physician at Altdorf, Germany, which has been used with unparal-Icled snecess throughout Germany. This medicine con sists of two kinds, viz: the German Aperient, and the Compound Strengthening Tonic Pills. They are each put up in small packs, and should both be used to effect a permanent cure. Those who are affected would do well to make a trial of this invaluable medicine, as they never produce sickness or nausea while using.

and all stomach complaints; pain in the side, liver complaints, loss of appetite, flatulency, palpitation of the heart, general debility, nervous irritability, sick head ache, female diseases, spasmodic affections, rheumatism, asthmas, consumption, &c. The German Aperient Pills are to cleanse the stomach and purify the blood. The Tonic or Strengthening Pills are to strengthen and invigorate the nerves and digestive organs and give tone to the stomach, as all diseases originate from im-purities of the blood and disordered stomach. This mode of treating diseases is pursued by all practical physicians, which experience has taught them to be the only remedy to effect a cure. They are not only recommended and prescribed by the most experienced physicians in their daily practice, but also taken by those gentlemen themselves whenever they feel the symptoms of those diseases, in which they know them to be efficacious. This is the case in all large cities in which they have an extensive sale. It is not to be up. which they have an extensive sale. It is not to be un derstood that these medicines will care all diseases merely by purifying the blood—this they will not do; but they certainly will, and sufficient authority of daily proofs asserting that those medicines, taken as recom-mended by the directions which accompany them, will cure a great majority of diseases of the stomach, lungs, and liver, by which impurities of the blood are oceas

But to secure the nomination of Hirrison, it was necessary that it should be known all over the Union, that the abolitionists & anti-masons would give him their support. With this view, the "Central Abolition Committee" at Albruy, in N York, got up the following circular, which was directed by Mr. S. Dewir Bloodgood, a leading abolitionist in Albany, to various leading men of the federal party in all the States in the Union-in structing them to arge their delegates in the Harrisburg Convention to go for Harrison. One of these circulars was sent to Mr. Simeon Francis, the editor of the Sangamo Journal, sup posing, from his station, that he could influence the vote of Illinois. Mr. Francis and the whole lederal party of the State, had long been for Clay .-And as the vote of this State was east for Harrison in the Harrisburg Convention, and as all the leading federalists of this State, about that time became very friendly to General Harrison, we have every reason to believe that it was under the influence of the ABOLITION and ANTI-MASON-IC CIRCULAR.

Here is the circular, together with the letter of Mr. Bloodgood:

The name of Gen. Scott has been brought out here by a few of our leading office holders. It is suspected that it was at first merely a scheme to get rid of Mr Clay, and the implied obligation of his support. As it took a little better than was expected, a few have attempted to press it. But it is the idlest of all attemp s, and even now signally fails. Gen. Scott is not known as a whig, and not identified with us. A few ambitions men in New York, and in the army, doubtless hope to advance themselves by advancing him. The enthusiasm in favor of the hero of Tippecanoc appears to be subsiding. The ridicularis states that there has just been disclosed and drunken frolic at Columbus, with the thousands of bankites, speculators, &c. has not been sufficient to prolong the excitement.

The plea offered by defendant's counsel was, that there was no malice in the author of the charge. At our latest dates several witnesses had been examined. The result shall be given when

> FOR THE GAZETTE. PHŒNIX MILL,

'Tis done-the diabolical deed is accomplished, the fell incendiary has triumphed in his schemes of ruins and the work of destruction is completed. That splendid establishment Phænix Mill, belonging to A. Caldwell esq of this City, with the exensive Cotto Pactory attached and nearly all the Machinery & fixtures, is now a heap of smoking uine. Kentucky-perhaps the world could not boast of an establishment of the kind, its equal in lesign and execution, in the perfection of the mahinery and the convenience of the arrangements. Searcely a year has elapsed since the old Mill the Alluvian, which stood on the same spot, was burnt, and the loss then sustained, was great. But nothing daunted by a catastrophe so well calculated to paralize all effort, its energetic owner redoubled his exertions to rebuild it on an improved plan, and by dint of indefatigable labour and perseverence, succeeded in erecting and getting into the complete and successful operation, that unequalled esfew short months after its completion, we have just witnessed. And thus has suddenjy perished the laborer's hope of reward; and a great public benefit, and an ornament to the City, laid in ashes. What then; Shall our energetic and enterprising this heavy stroke? NO! More than a thousand voices in Lexington and Fayette County cry out NO;" The magnanimity of the people of this City and County, slumbers not on such oceasions. A public meeting of the Citizens of Lexington was promptly called, and a liberal contribution made contributions from others since. And it will yet be further increased by the liberal and wealthy farmers of Fayette, all of whom hid, directly or indirectly, an interest in the Phonix Mill. There is now a fair prospect, that we shall, in a few months, again behold this admirable establishment, rising like the bird whose name it bears, from the ashes of its tomb, to adorn the city and cheer us with the pleasant sound of its perfect machinery,

We have met with nothing more shocklug than the following which we copy from the Frankfort Commonwealth of Tuesday last.

NEW Yoak, Dec. 17th, 1839. Sin-Although I am not personally acquainted with yon, I trust, when you perceive the object of my letter, you will excuse the liberty I have taken in addressing you. It is possible, you may not be aware that a man by the name of Enos L. Fenwick, now in this city, by the name of Enos L. Fenwick, now in this city, (formerly a Baptist preacher, and familiarly known to the citizens of Monroe county, as the "Reverend Imposter") is manufacturing a medicine and selling it for the Matchless Sanative, of which I perceive you are the general agent. I have every reason to believe, sir, that Mr. Fenwick is an unprincipled main, as he was, not long since, deposed from the ministry, for taking unwarantable liberties with members of his church, I therefore, as the enemy of knavery, feel anxious that he should be speedily exposed lest many of my fellow citizens should be defrauded by him out of their money, if not their characters. I deem it the concientious duty of every man, to expose villainy and vice wherever ty of every man, to expose villainy and vice wherever and whenever he meets it. Besides, sir, another consideration should prompt me to make known to you the above facts, I have a daughter, who, thank God, has been raised from a wasting skeleton to perfect healthand that too, by the simple means of using one vial and a half of the Matchless Sanative, which I bought at months, I take pleasure in giving my testing a half of the Matchless Sanative, which I bought at months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing my testing my testing my testing the months, I take pleasure in giving my testing my tes niously, and hoping that you will take the carliest steps to expose to the world the base imposter, Fenwick, 1

A few months ago, this SCOUNDREL wrote to the subscriber at Boston, and wished to be appointed an agent for the sale of the Matchless Sanative. The General Agent not knowing his deprayed character, gave him an agency, and forwarded him a quantity of the medicine. This he soon sold, and remitted the money, and ordered another lot, which was sent about one month since. To avoid any suspicion as to the design of this applying for an agency, or to conceal his "eloven foot," he made a partial remattance of the sales of the last lot, only ten days ago.
